CONTENTS VOLUME 20 1980

Number 102 February

The relation between mating activity of rams in pens and subsequent flock mating performance—R. J. Kilgour and R. G. Whale.	5
The growth rates of weaned lambs grazing three legume-based pastures during summer—I. D. Sanderson, J. D. McFarlane and W. R. McManus.	9
Effect of different levels of the supplements lupin grain, lucerne, wheat, and wheat with urea and sulphur fed during mating in February to Border Leicester × Merino ewes in north-east Victoria—P. A. Kenney, J. L. Reeve, R. W. Baxter and I. A. Cumming.	15
Zinc status of grazing sheep: seasonal changes in zinc concentrations in plasma, wool and pasture—D. G. Masters and M. Somers.	20
Sheep production on the north coast of New South Wales. 2. A feasibility study of prime lamb production—R. D. H. Cohen.	25
Sheep carcasses and their appraisal. 1. Characteristics of commercial Australian lamb and mutton—S. A. Barwick and C. J. Thwaites.	32
The measurement of, and factors affecting, the strength of attachment of wool to the skin of sheep—A. J. Gordon.	40
Mineral and vitamin supplementation of diets for growing pigs. 5. Effects of supplementing grain/animal protein diets in commercial piggeries—E. B. Greer, G. H. O'Neill, W. T. Kirsop, G. J. Roesse, D. G. Paton, R. J. MacKenzie, P. R. Hassab, R. C. Hollow and R. C. Tandy.	50
Evaluation of pigeon pea ( Cajanus cajan ) as an autumn forage for coastal New South Wales—M. J. T. Norman, P. G. E. Searle, Nipaporn Dankittipakul, K. C. Ingram and J. de B. Baskoro.	55
Studies on seed pelleting as an aid to legume inoculation. 5. Effects of incorporation of molybdenum compounds in the seed pellet on inoculant survival, seedling nodulation and plant growth of lucerne and subterranean clover—R. R. Gault and J. Brockwell.	63
Effects of aphids on seedling growth of lucerne lines. 1. Blue-green aphid in field conditions ( Acyrtosiphon kondoi Shinji)—D. L. Lloyd, J. W. Turner and T. B. Hilder.	72
Effect of wheat seeding rate on wild oat competition—B. J. Radford, B. J. Wilson, O. Cartledge and F. B. Watkins.	77
Recovery of nitrogen by wheat from various depths in a cracking clay soil—W. M. Strong and J. E. Cooper.	82
Response of nine genotypes of irrigated soybeans to planting pattern and sowing date—G. A. Constable and I. A. Rose.	88
Surveys of speckled leaf blotch and other foliar diseases of wheat in Victoria, 1974 to 1978—J. S. Brown and R. G. Paddock.	94
The effect of aerated steam on six seed-borne pathogens—S. J. Navaratnam, Dianne Shuttleworth and D. Wallace.	97
Survival in soil of bacteria causing common and halo blights of French bean in Victoria—D. L. S. Wimalajeewa and R. J. Nancarrow.	102
A study on pollination of safflower ( Carthamus tinctorius ) cv. Gila—D. F. Langridge and R. D. Goodman.	105
Sealing a farm silo for insect control by nitrogen swamping or fumigation—P. Williams, W. Minett, S. Navarro and T. G. Amos.	108

Indexing grapevine clones in the Fruit Variety Foundation of Australia for virus and virus-like diseases—N. Shanmuganathan and G. Fletcher.	115
Fungicidal control in pineapple and avocado of diseases caused by Phytophthora cinnamomi —R. N. Allen, K. G. Pegg, L. I. Forsberg and D. J. Firth.	119
Reduction of red colour in Starkrimson apples using calcium nitrate sprays—K. M. Jones.	125

Number 103 April

An evaluation of some methods of predicting muscle weight of cattle—D. M. Murray.	133
A comparison of two methods of predicting bone weight of cattle—D. M. Murray.	139
Use of carcase measurements to predict percentage carcase composition in crossbred lambs—J. M. Thompson and K. D. Atkins.	144
Energy losses in the excreta of poultry: a model for predicting dietary metabolizable energy—K. W. Moir, W. J. Yule and J. K. Connor.	151
Amaranthus edulis : an ancient food source re-examined—J. K. Connor, R. J. W. Gartner, Bronwyn M. Runge and R. N. Amos.	156
Toxicological investigations on Astragalus hamosus and Astragalus sesameus —M. C. Williams.	162
A study of the periods for which lupin stubbles infected with Phomopsis leptostromiformis remain toxic—J. G. Allen, S. R. Wallace and P. McR. Wood.	166
The influence of artificial windbreaks on loss of soil water from a continuously grazed pasture during a dry period—J. J. Lynch, R. L. Elwin and B. E. Mottershead.	170
The influence of water stress on nitrogen and phosphorus uptake and concentrations in Townsville stylo ( Stylosanthes humilis )—M. J. Fisher.	175
Production of two species and two interspecific hybrids of phalaris under irrigation in south-west New South Wales—J. W. Read and J. V. Lovett.	181
Plant productivity and persistence in mixed pastures containing lucerne at a range of densities with subterranean clover or phalaris—E. C. Wolfe and O. R. Southwood.	189
Are some strains of subterranean clover ( T. subterraneum ) highly susceptible to low temperature stress?—R. C. Rossiter and W. J. Collins.	197
Some water use responses of barley, lupin and rapeseed—W. K. Anderson.	202
An investigation of reduction in wheat yields after use of a high level of ammonium sulphate for a number of years—M. G. Mason.	210
Effect of cropping after medic and non-medic pastures on total soil nitrogen and on the grain-yield and nitrogen content of wheat—C. L. Tuohey and A. D. Robson.	220
The potential of Campylomma livida Reuter, and Megacoelum modestum Distant (Hemiptera: Miridae), to damage cotton in Queensland—A. L. Bishop.	229
The frequency of Cryptolestes spp. in grain in south-east Queensland—E. R. Sinclair and M. Bengston.	234
Growth responses to various calcium sources in a yellow earth soil with low calcium status—M. E. Probert.	240
Bunch rot of Rhine Riesling grapes in the lower south-west of Western Australia—M. J. Barbetti.	247
Use of flesh firmness and other objective tests to determine consumer acceptability of Delicious apples—R. B. H. Wills, P. A. Bambridge and K. J. Scott.	252

Number 104 June

Post-weaning growth and carcase characteristics of Chianina, Brahman and Hereford cross, and Hereford steers in southern Queensland—R. T. Strachan, W. J. Peart, R. G. Coleman and P. K. O'Rourke.	261
--	-----

Effect of bloat on the milk production and grazing time of dairy cows—C. R. Stockdale, K. R. King and I. F. Patterson.	265
The effect of proportion of whole or rolled oats in steer rations on their digestibility—C. A. McDonald and D. Hamilton.	268
The comparative productivity of five ewe breeds. 1. Lamb growth and survival—K. D. Atkins.	272
The comparative productivity of five ewe breeds. 2. Hogget wool production—K. D. Atkins.	280
The comparative productivity of five ewe breeds. 3. Adult ewe performance—K. D. Atkins.	288
A comparison of levels of production and profit from grazing Merino ewes and wethers at various stocking rates in northern Victoria—D. H. White, B. J. McConchie, B. C. Curnow and A. H. Ternouth.	296
The influence of dietary protein and energy concentration on the growth of Merino weaner sheep—B. A. McGregor and J. W. McLaughlin.	308
Control of ovine lupinosis: use of a resistant cultivar of Lupinus albus —cv. Ultra—P. McR. Wood and J. G. Allen.	316
Nutrient problems in sown pasture on an acid soil. 1. Survey of the problems and suggested corrective treatments—K. D. McLachlan.	319
Seedling characteristics of cultivars of Leucaena leucocephala —R. A. Bray.	327
Effect of nitrogen, sulphur and phosphorus fertilizer on the production, mineral content and cyanide potential of forage sorghum—J. L. Wheeler, D. A. Hedges, K. A. Archer and B. A. Hamilton.	330
Response of nine soybean lines to soil moisture conditions close to saturation—M. N. Hunter, P. L. M. de Jabrun and D. E. Byth.	339
Phosphate sorption and extractable iron in soils during irrigated rice-upland crop rotations—I. R. Willett and M. L. Higgins.	346
Effects of subterranean, rose and cupped clovers on soil nitrogen and on a subsequent cereal crop—E. R. Watson, P. Lapins and R. J. W. Barron.	354
The effect of nitrogen fertilizer and irrigation frequency on a semi-dwarf wheat in south-east Australia. 1. Growth and yield—J. L. Cooper.	359
The effect of nitrogen fertilizer and irrigation frequency on a semi-dwarf wheat in south-east Australia. 2. Water use—J. L. Cooper.	365
Residual effectiveness of copper fertilizer for wheat in Western Australia—J. W. Gartrell.	370
Use of pulverised fuel ash from Victorian brown coal as a source of nutrients for a pasture species—M. J. Hill and C. A. Lamp.	377

Number 105 August

The effect of restriction of pasture intake in late lactation on the milk production and body condition of dairy cows—K. R. King, C. R. Stockdale and I. F. Patterson.	389
Comparison of caustic soda-treated barley and rolled barley in the ration of dairy cows—R. A. Bettenay.	394
Effects of mineral supplementation on the performance of steers grazing birdwood grass ( Cenchrus setiger ) pastures in north Western Australia—A. McR. Holm and A. L. Payne.	398
Effect of feeding strategy and area of pasture conserved on the wool production of wethers—H. A. Birrell and A. H. Bishop.	406
Measurement of the variability in intake by sheep of oat grain, hay and molasses-urea blocks using chromic oxide as a marker—J. F. P. Lobato, G. R. Pearce and D. E. Tribe.	413
Responses to molasses-urea blocks of grazing sheep and sheep in yards—J. F. P. Lobato and G. R. Pearce.	417
Effects of some management procedures on the responses of sheep to molasses-urea blocks—J. F. P. Lobato and G. R. Pearce.	422

Evaluation of poultry manure as a nitrogen supplement to diets of oats and roughage for sheep— D. G. Hall and M. J. Keys.	427
Various sources of supplemental phosphorus for grower/finisher pig diets based on plant protein— R. H. King.	433
Preliminary agronomic evaluation of some perennial Urochloa species over a range of environments— R. L. Burt, D. F. Sinclair, P. Harrison, B. C. Pengelly and W. T. Williams.	439
Selection for resistance to Colletotrichum trifolii in the lucerne cultivars Hunter River and Siro Peruvian— J. A. G. Irwin, D. L. Lloyd, R. A. Bray and P. W. Langdon.	447
Effects of aphids on seedling growth of lucerne lines. 2. Spotted alfalfa aphid ( Therioaphis trifolii f. maculata (Monell)) in field conditions—D. L. Lloyd, J. W. Turner and T. B. Hilder.	452
Seedling survival, yield and seed production of three species of annual medics exposed to lucerne aphids—G. M. Lodge and L. R. Greenup.	457
Germination and establishment of the weeds Sida acuta and Pennisetum pedicellatum in the Northern Territory—J. J. Mott.	463
Effects of high application rates of a dried sludge to a market garden soil—investigations in mini-plots— M. P. C. de Vries and R. H. Merry.	470
Prediction of yield responses to phosphorus by established Greenleaf desmodium/grass pastures in south-east Queensland using chemical tests—G. E. Rayment, R. C. Bruce and B. G. Cook.	477
The effect of method of application and presence of sulphate on phosphate fixation from three phosphate fertilizers applied to a krasnozem soil—R. L. Aitken and J. D. Hughes.	486
The distribution of ultra-low volume sprays from a light aircraft equipped with rotary atomizers— N. T. Nguyen and J. W. Watt.	492
Fungicide seed dressings: their effects on emergence of soybean and modulation of pea and soybean— G. E. Stovold and J. Evans.	497
Rate of decrease of the residual concentration of diazinon in cabbage—J. R. Hargreaves and K. J. Melksham.	504
Ethephon for fruit thinning of Imperial and Beauty of Glen Retreat mandarins in the Central Burnett district, Queensland—J. C. Chapman.	508

Number 106 October

Liveweight loss and recovery in steers fasted for periods of twelve to seventy-two hours—J. R. Wythes, S. R. McLennan and M. A. Toleman.	517
The response of cattle on a sorghum-based feedlot diet to monensin supplied either via intraruminal capsules or in the feed—G. D. Tudor, R. H. Laby and D. W. Utting.	522
The effects of stocking rate and nitrogen fertilizer on the productivity of irrigated perennial pasture grazed by dairy cows. 1. Pasture production, utilization and composition—C. R. Stockdale and K. R. King.	529
The effects of stocking rate and nitrogen fertilizer on the productivity of irrigated perennial pasture grazed by dairy cows. 2. Animal production—K. R. King and C. R. Stockdale.	537
Milk yield response following sodium chloride supplementation of cows grazing a tropical grass-legume pasture—T. M. Davison, G. M. Murphy, M. M. Maroske and G. Arnold.	543
Provision of zinc to sheep by means of an intraruminal pellet—D. G. Masters and R. J. Moir.	547
Estimation of selenium concentration in the diet using oesophageally fistulated sheep—J. P. Langlands, J. E. Bowles, G. E. Donald and A. J. Smith.	552
The use of leaf development rate to determine time to irrigate pangola grass—C. G. Blunt and R. J. Jones.	556

Soil acidification under clover pasture—C. H. Williams.	561
Nutrient problems in sown pasture on an acid soil. 2. Role of lime and superphosphate—K. D. McLachlan.	568
Effects of broiler shed litter on the establishment and growth of perennial pasture on infertile acid podzolic soils—M. G. Temple-Smith.	576
Effects of nitrogen fertilizer and white clover on dry matter and nitrogen yields of Digitaria decumbens and Setaria sphacelata var. sericea in south-eastern Queensland—J. P. Ebersohn and J. C. Mulder.	582
Tolerance of perennating Stylosanthes plants to fire—C. J. Gardener.	587
Effects of water deficit on yield of wheat and triticale—B. G. Sutton and E. A. Dubbelde.	594
Effect of initial watering on nodulation of lupins—H. R. Philpotts.	599
The effect of time of sowing on yield of mungbean ( Vigna radiata ) varieties in coastal New South Wales—P. G. E. Searle, Apichai Thirathon and M. J. T. Norman.	602
Growth and fibre development of ginger ( Zingiber officinale Rosc.) in south-east Queensland—A. W. Whiley.	608
Effects of atrazine treatment of sorghum on growth of a subsequent rice crop—D. J. Swain.	613
Pilot commercial treatment of bulk wheat with CO <sub>2</sub> for insect control: the need for gas recirculation—A. D. Wilson, H. J. Banks, P. C. Annis and V. Guiffre.	618
Powdery scab ( Spongospora subterranea ) of potatoes in Queensland: occurrence, cultivar susceptibility, time of infection, effect of soil pH, chemical control and temperature relations—I. K. Hughes.	625

Number 107 December

Effect of stocking rate, time of lambing and inclusion of lucerne on prime lamb production in north-east Victoria—J. L. Reeve and M. J. Sharkey.	637
Effects of shearing and lambing dates on the predicted pasture requirements of sheep in two Tasmanian locations—J. L. Black and G. A. Bottomley.	654
The effect of serving capacity of the ram syndicate on flock fertility—R. J. Kilgour and J. F. Wilkins.	662
Programmed year-round sheep breeding—T. J. Robinson.	667
Liveweights and ration digestibilities for steers fed oat or wheat rations at near maintenance level—D. Hamilton and J. J. L. Maden.	674
Beef production from lucerne and subterranean clover pastures. 1. The effects of pasture, stocking rate and supplementary feeding—E. C. Wolfe, R. D. FitzGerald, D. G. Hall and O. R. Southwood.	678
Beef production from lucerne and subterranean clover pastures. 2. Bloat occurrence and effect of anti-bloat capsules—R. D. FitzGerald, E. C. Wolfe, R. H. Laby and D. G. Hall.	688
Beef production from lucerne and subterranean clover pastures. 3. Composition and quality of the diet selected—D. G. Hall, R. D. FitzGerald, E. C. Wolfe and B. R. Cullis.	695
A method for advanced stage evaluation of pasture species: a case study with bred lines of Macropodium atropurpureum —R. M. Jones, R. J. Jones and E. M. Hutton.	703
Management of Acyrtosiphon kondoi Shinji, blue-green aphid, and Therioaphis trifolii (Monell) f. maculata , spotted alfalfa aphid, by grazing and cutting lucerne—A. L. Bishop, L. R. Greenup and R. H. Holtkamp.	710
Effectiveness of soil dressings and foliar sprays of copper sulphate in correcting copper deficiency of wheat ( Triticum aestivum ) in Queensland—N. J. Grundon.	717
Effect of sulphur, sulphuric acid and gypsum on the yield of rice on the Cununurra soils of the Ord Irrigation Area, Western Australia—A. L. Chapman.	724
Mineral nitrogen in soils undergoing irrigated rice-upland crop rotations—I. R. Willett and M. L. Higgins.	731

The control of breakdown of potato seedpieces with fungicidal dusts—I. K. Hughes.	737
Control of premature fruit drop in Macadamia integrifolia : effects of naphthalene acetic acid application, cincturing, and shoot-tip removal—R. R. Williams.	740
Annual Contents and Author Index.	743
